Recycle your old mobile phone

Do you have some unwanted mobile devices laying in your drawers at home? If you no longer need them you can bring those back to us for recycling at the Annual General Meeting and we can put those to good use - 100 percent of the materials in your phone can be recovered and used to make new products or generate energy.

You can also recycle your mobile device any time by returning it to any of those over 5000 Nokia care points around the world. Find out your nearest take back point at www.nokia.com/werecycle
